10/7/14 32 (1) The dates of appointment of the members is given in the draft as the date of this Notification. But it is doubtful if we can legally refer back the appointment to the 21st June (or 8th July) as was done on the last occasion. There is no harm in backdating giving effect to the nominations from the date of the Notification but the Contrary is a convenient Course to adopt as the date membership of all the Gentlemen newly appointed would Commence from the same date.

(2) I respectfully beg to point out that the total Strength of the Council, including the Dewan and the two Ex-Officio Councillors will be 15 and not 16. ~~Both Orders have been passed regarding the Nominations~~

33 If it is the idea that the total number is to be 16 then Mr Muttamma's name will perhaps have to be included. But no Express orders have been passed regarding his re-appointment.

Election of members to the Legislative Council.

(a) Mr. H. Surasastri, Chikballapur Taluk.
(b) Mr. A. Narasimha Iyengar, Sagar Taluk.
(c) Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao, Chikmagalur Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The power of veto retained by the Government with regard to the election of members from the Representative Assembly to the Legislative Council is anomalous and should be dispensed with.

(b). A member may be allowed to be elected to the Legislative Council to represent the malnad districts of Kadur and Shimoga.

(c) One member may be elected to the Legislative Council from among the members of the Representative Assembly for the Nagar Division comprising the districts of Shimoga, Kadur and Chitaldrug.

(a) Mr. H. Surasastri added that non-official elected Representatives in the Council were very few—being only one or two—and that to restrict the field of choice in this manner would be a reflection on the Assembly itself. The members of the Assembly who are men of respectability, might be trusted to elect only persons qualified by character and ability to represent them.

(b) and (c) Messrs. C. Srinivasa Rao and A. Narasimhaiengar contended for a separate representative in the Council for the malnad districts of the State, on the ground that the malnad has got distinctive characteristics of its own; and they therefore prayed for a reconsideration of the last Government Order on the subject. Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao added that Chitaldrug might be clubbed along with Shimoga and Chikmagalur for this purpose. Mr. H. Surasastri said that it was desirable to have at least one non-official member in the Council to represent each of the eight districts in the State.

Reply of Government.—The rules regarding election of members to the Legislative Council have been only recently framed and some experience of their working is necessary before they can be reconsidered. Their effect will be watched.
